WOO WEST GERMAN PHYSICIANS -- Buenos Aires, Argentinisches Tageblatt, 7 Apr 51

Three thousand physicians are needed in the German Democratic Republic.
 Every effort is being made to lure medical doctors from West Germany.

Young graduate physicians, having completed one year's internship, can immediately secure posts in East German hospitals as assistant medical chiefs, at salaries of 600-1,200 East marks. Although, at unofficial exchange rates, this equals only 120-240 Deutsche marks (West), doctors are enabled to maintain a higher living standard in the German Democratic Republic, since they are provided with housing facilities and, in some cases, with more adequate nutrition than was available to them in West Germany.

RABIES EPIDEMIC HITS MECKLENBURG -- Buenos Aires, Argentinisches Tageblatt, 22 Apr 51

An epidemic of rabies has broken out in Mecklenburg. In several sectors of the land, persons have been attacked by rabid dogs. As a protective measure, children of the Schoenberg district are being kept out of school.
